Correlative Neuro Anatomy DVD

The Correlative Neuro Anatomy DVD from Adventures in Neuroscience offers a comprehensive review of the normal structures and pathways of the brain and brainstem as presented by international speaker, author, and coeditor of the Core Curriculum for Neuroscience Nursing, 4th Edition, Linda Littlejohns, MSN RN CCRN CNRN. The DVD consists of an audio-video presentation. This DVD can be used for home study and is a useful aid in preparing for the CNRN exam.

Scope and Standards of Neuroscience Nursing Practice

Written by AANN members and published by the American Nurses Association (ANA), Scope and Standards of Neuroscience Nursing Practice articulates the essentials of neuroscience nursing. Its essay on the scope of practice, along with standards of care and professional performance, specifies neuroscience nursing practice across the lifespan and across all settings, not simply on treatment of episodes of illness.
