NNF Joins with Integra Foundation to Recognize Travel Grant Recipients

As part of its ongoing commitment to support professional growth in neuroscience nursing, the Neuroscience Nursing Foundation (NNF) joined with the Integra Foundation to award $1,000 travel grants through the NNF Travel Grant Program to AANN members attending the annual educational meeting. Awards from the program can be used toward any direct expense incurred to attend the meeting, from registration to airfare to hotel accommodations. Congratulations to the following recipients who attended the 40th Annual Educational Meeting in Nashville, TN, in March:

Jean Arzbaecher, Chicago, IL
Kerri M. Crank, Holcombe, WI
Jennifer Edwards, Huntington, WV
Lorraine Fields, Uniontown, OH
Jane Fitzgerald Hines, Phoenix, AZ
Wilma J. Koopman, London, Ontario, Canada
Heather Martin, Williamstown, VT
Cheryl D. Rising, Bismarck, ND
Jo Simpson, Indian Shores, FL
Jennifer S. Storch, San Diego, CA

Recipient Cheryl Rising expressed her gratitude, stating, "I want to thank you so much for the travel grant. It would have been very difficult to attend this year without the help."

Thank you to all who contributed to the NNF 40/40/40 Campaign, which also helped raise funds for this program!

If you are interested in applying for a travel grant to attend the 41st AANN Annual Educational Meeting in Las Vegas March 28–31, 2009, applications are available on the NNF page of the AANN Web site, www.AANN.org. Applications are due November 17, 2008.
